

Resources for Writing Abstracts

General resources for writing abstracts in the humanities and sciences

tinyurl.com/ybw8phz7

tinyurl.com/2p8rr5u8

tinyurl.com/bdfry7fn

tinyurl.com/4uk4wdac

Resources for writing scientific abstracts

MURR Contest Abstract Requirements: 160–250 words

Our Advice:

- Give an introduction to your field of study/subject matter
- Summarize what the main problem that you are investigating is. Why do we care about the findings?
- Summarize what your main finding was (and any other important findings)
- Contextualize your findings by creating a broader picture of why they matter to your field